Question 21

Description: Four people share their feelings about a film. Read their answers and answer the questions below. Person A A friend recommended the film because she had read the novel. I thought it was excellent, and I was captivated by the plot throughout, even though it was quite lengthy. All of the actors were outstanding, and the scenes where the zombies were finally defeated were amazing. The only thing I didn't like was my choice of viewing location. I should have gone out – it would have been much better on the big screen. Person B This was a sequel, and I hadn't seen the prior film, so I have to admit I felt completely lost. I'm pleased I had company. Luckily, my friend was able to explain who the characters were. There were some aspects I liked – the special effects, for example, were impressive, and the soundtrack was lovely. I would definitely recommend it to people who enjoy feeling scared, but personally, films like this don't frighten me. I think I'll stick to romantic movies in the future. Person C Unfortunately, it wasn't as good as I expected. The written version was terrifying but also thrilling. However, I ended up feeling bored while watching the film. The acting was rather uninspiring, and two and a half hours was excessive. I reckon the story could have been told in half the time. It was definitely better on the page than on the screen. Furthermore, cinema tickets are so costly these days. To be honest, I wish I hadn't wasted my money! Person D This was actually my second time watching it, but even though I knew what to expect, I still felt scared whenever a zombie attack happened. The direction really makes it feel like you are right there in the room with the characters. Being familiar with the film didn't make it easier! I was so relieved when my friend called after I got home so that I could chat about ordinary things and forget about it. Otherwise, I might have had nightmares!

Who thought the film was too long? _

Question 23 (File nghe 715)

Description: In this part, I'm going to ask you to describe a picture. Then I will ask you two questions about it. You will have 45 seconds for each response. Begin speaking when you hear this sound.

File nghe: 3837

Suggest: In the picture, I can see many people. In the front, I can see a lot of men and women in their office. They are sitting and working. In the background, there are desks and computers. They are modern. It is clear that they are working with computers and telephones. I guess they are focused/attentive/concentrated. I guess they are colleagues and they are working very hard.

When was the last time you went to work?

File nghe: 3838

Suggest: The last time I went to work was a day ago. I went to work by motorbike. I worked from 9am to 5pm and I worked with my colleagues. I felt happy when I went to work. It helped me expand my knowledge and gain more skills.

Why is it important for people to enjoy working?

File nghe: 3839

Suggest: If you do not enjoy working, you will not be able to reach your full potential. If you enjoy your job, you will stick with it for a long time. Working helps people to expand their knowledge and besides, it allows them to gain more experiences. For me, I enjoy working because it is fun and interesting.

Question 23 (File nghe 716)

Description: In this part, I'm going to ask you to compare two pictures, and I will then ask you two questions about them. You will have 45 seconds for each response. Begin speaking when you hear this sound.

Describe 2 pictures.

File nghe: 3840

Suggest: Both pictures are so beautiful, let me describe them. In the first picture, there is a woman and a little girl. They are in a shop. They are looking at the clocks. They are wearing beautiful clothes. Turning to the second picture, I can see two women. They are shopping at the outdoor market. They look happy and I think they are friends. Regarding the differences, while the first picture is about buying things in a shop, the second is about buying things at a market. Personally, I love both pictures because they are all beautiful.

What are the differences between buying in the two places?

File nghe: 3841

Suggest: Each picture has its own attractions. Regarding the first picture, shopping in a shop is fun and interesting. Turning to the second picture, shopping in a market can help us gain more skills and make new friends.

What are the attractions of buying expensive things?

File nghe: 3842

Suggest: Buying expensive things can make people feel more important and successful. They often come with better quality and last longer. Plus, owning luxury items can make someone feel happy and confident.

Question 23 (File nghe 717)

Description: In this part, I'm going to show you a picture and ask you three questions. You will have one minute to think about your answers before you start speaking. You will have two minutes to answer all three questions. Begin speaking when you hear this sound. Look at the photograph.

Talk about a time when you asked a question. Is it easy to ask a question?

Some subjects are more difficult for many people. What do you think?

File nghe: 3843

Suggest: Now I am going to answer 3 questions. Regarding the first question, the last time I asked a question was 2 months ago. I tried to ask a question about my homework at school with my friends in January. We shared our work, while my friends searched online, I asked for the teacher's help. Finally, we completed the homework and got a high score. That experience was so memorable because it helps me expand valuable knowledge in my life. Turning to the second question, I feel/think it is easy to ask a question. For example, when I asked a question about my homework, I felt very delighted because I could learn the lesson better. As for the final question, some subjects are more difficult for many people. For example, people can work with their friends. This is because some subjects need a lot of time and effort. That's all I want to tell you. Thank you for listening.

WRITING

Description: You want to join a cooking club. You have 5 messages from a member of the club. Write short answers (1–5 words) to each message. Recommended time: 3 minutes.

Suggest: In my opinion, I think it's a great idea for children to learn how to cook at school. It helps students learn about different cultures and cuisines. Besides, cooking is definitely a skill that will come in handy in the future.

Description: You are a member of a Cooking Club. You received this e-mail from the club. Dear members, A recent report states that young people in their 20s do not cook at home. We want to encourage more people to learn cooking. What advice would you give to those who have never cooked before but want to start, and what is the best way to convey this advice? Bests, Club Manager.

Write an email to your friend. Write about your feelings and what you think the club should do about the situation. Write about 50 words. Recommended time: 10 minutes.

Suggest: Dear Anna, How are you? I hope you and your family are well I'm writing about the latest email from our club I was worried when I heard that news. It said that our club wants to encourage people in their 20s to cook more. I think that our club can create a book having recipes for simple dishes. Moreover, we can also hold a cooking class to teach young people to cook. What do you think? Drop me a line soon Your friend, Jean.

Write an email to the president of the club. Write about your feelings and what you think the club should do about the situation. Write 120–150 words. Recommended time: 20 minutes.

Suggest: Dear Club Manager, My name is Jean. I have been a member of our club for 2 months. I am writing in response to your latest email. According to the report, young people in their 20s do not cook at home and our club wants to encourage them to take up cooking as this skill might come in handy. To be honest, I am very worried to hear that news. I would love to venture my idea. I believe that our club could create a cookbook with recipes for simple dishes. This would not only help young people improve their cooking skills but also encourage them to try new recipes at home. Additionally, we could hold a cooking class to teach young people how to cook. This hands-on experience would be beneficial and fun for everyone. By implementing these changes, we can ensure better attendance and engagement, enhancing the overall experience for everyone involved. I hope my suggestions will be useful. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards, Jean.
