Question 21

Description: Four people share their feelings about reading books. Read their answers and answer the questions below. Person A I have to read a lot for my job, and I find that reading factual books is often boring. The material tends to be dry and lacks excitement. After a long day at work, I usually feel too exhausted to read much, which means I have limited time for reading anything enjoyable. Person B My wife is always complaining that she can't read many books. I don't have that problem because I plan the reading schedule carefully. I set aside specific times each week for reading, which helps me stay on track. This way, I can enjoy my books while she finds it challenging to keep up. Person C When I was a child, I struggled to finish one book at a time. It felt overwhelming to stay focused on a single story. However, now that I'm older, I enjoy exploring many genres and even read multiple books at once. I have a long list of books I want to read in the future, which keeps me excited. Person D I keep a novel on the bedside table because I want to read before sleeping. However, I often find myself getting sleepy as soon as I start reading, which makes it difficult to concentrate. As a result, it has taken me several months to finish this book, and I still haven't completed it.

Description: You are a member of the photography club. You received this email from the club's manager. Dear Member, As you know, every year we hold a competition for the best photograph from our members. In the past we have had just one single category. This year we are thinking about having separate categories for men and women and another category for people under 16. Before we make any changes, we would like to hear from you. What do you think of the proposed change? Please do not forget to tell us the reason for your opinion. Bests, Club Manager.

Write an email to your friend. Write about your feelings and what you think the club should do about the situation. Write about 50 words. Recommended time: 10 minutes.

Suggest: Hi Lisa, How are you today? I hope you and your family have a great day. I just got an email from the club about adding categories for male, female and people under 16 in this year's photo contest. I think this change is quite good because it gives more people a chance, as well as creating fairness. What do you think about this? I hope to hear from you soon. Yours, Hanna.

Write an email to the president of the club. Write about your feelings and what you think the club should do about the situation. Write 120–150 words. Recommended time: 20 minutes.

Suggest: Dear Club Manager, My name is Hanna. I have been a member for 2 months. I am writing in response to your latest email. According to the email, every year we hold a competition for the best photograph from our members. In the past we have had just one single category. This year we are thinking about having separate categories for men and women and another category for people under 16. To be honest, I felt delighted about this change. I appreciate the thoughtful consideration the club is giving to make the contest more open and fair for all members. I believe that creating these categories is an excellent idea. Not only does it allow more members to participate under fairer conditions, but it also encourages younger members to join without feeling too young or too old. Moreover, by adding a category for those under 16, we're showing a commitment to developing young talents, which could increase interest in our club. By implementing these changes, we can ensure better attendance and engagement, enhancing the overall experience for everyone involved. I hope my suggestions will be useful. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon. Best regards, Hanna.
