Question 21

Description: Four people respond to the request from the reporter asking about watching TV. Read their answers and answer the questions below. A In my house, the TV is always on, and I watch whatever is playing because it's my way of staying entertained. However, sometimes I come across a really interesting series, and I can't stop constantly keeping up with it. That's how I entertain myself every day. B I was never good at school because my grades were always low. However, I can remember a lot of practical things from watching TV. For me, it's a great way to expand my understanding of the world, and I believe it will be more useful when I graduate than the dry, theoretical knowledge we learn in school. C I don't watch television much lately because I find most reality shows to be pretty stupid. I realized they're all scripted, and the actors just follow a set plan. Once I learned that, I stopped watching those kinds of shows altogether. I switched to watching football instead, but my favorite team keeps losing, so I lost interest in that too. D I probably spend far too long just watching the series "Friends." The characters are so funny, and I find myself laughing out loud in every episode. I've been watching it for three weeks now, and I still can't wait for the next episode. Watching it for so long has actually helped me improve my English speaking skills without having to sit through boring lessons in class.

Question 22

Description: Read the text. Match the headings to the paragraphs. There is one heading that you will not use. Vegetarians and Their Impact on the World

1._ There are several types of vegetarian diets. Some people avoid all animal products, like vegans, while others, like lacto-vegetarians, eat dairy. Others, like ovo-vegetarians, include eggs. Many people also follow a pescatarian diet, which includes fish but no other meat. Each of these diets offers a variety of meals rich in fruits, vegetables, grains, and plant-based proteins.

1. Possible global food crisis
2. Our global responsibility
3. Types of vegetarian meals
4. Health benefits
5. Respect to life
6. Factory farming
7. How to start a vegan diet
8. Various explanations

2._ The reasons behind dietary choices can be as diverse as the individuals making them. Many people opt for a vegetarian lifestyle due to ethical concerns, environmental awareness, or health considerations. Some may be motivated by cultural traditions or personal beliefs, while others seek new culinary experiences. Understanding these motivations fosters respectful discussions about food choices and their implications, promoting a more inclusive dialogue around dietary preferences.

1. Possible global food crisis
2. Our global responsibility
3. Types of vegetarian meals
4. Health benefits

5. Respect to life
6. Factory farming
7. How to start a vegan diet
8. Various explanations

3._ As the global population continues to grow, concerns about food security and sustainability intensify. The increasing demand for resources puts immense pressure on agricultural systems, leading to potential shortages and rising prices. Without significant changes in our consumption patterns and food production methods, we may face a considerable crisis soon. This reality underscores the need for diverse dietary choices, including vegetarian options, which can alleviate some of the pressure on our food systems.

1. Possible global food crisis
2. Our global responsibility
3. Types of vegetarian meals
4. Health benefits
5. Respect to life
6. Factory farming
7. How to start a vegan diet
8. Various explanations

4._ The industrial approach to livestock production raises numerous ethical and environmental questions. Large-scale operations often prioritize efficiency over animal welfare, resulting in cramped living conditions and the overuse of antibiotics. This practice not only impacts the lives of animals but contributes to pollution and greenhouse gas emissions. As awareness of these issues grows, many advocates push for more humane and sustainable farming practices, which align better with the ethical motivations of those choosing plant-based diets.

1. Possible global food crisis
2. Our global responsibility
3. Types of vegetarian meals
4. Health benefits
5. Respect to life
6. Factory farming
7. How to start a vegan diet
8. Various explanations

5._ In an interconnected world, our food consumption choices carry significant weight. Each individual's decisions can influence broader societal impacts, affecting everything from environmental sustainability to animal welfare. Embracing a sense of stewardship encourages us to consider how our eating habits impact not just our health, but also the health of the planet. By making conscious choices, such as incorporating more plant-based meals, we can collectively work towards a more equitable and sustainable future for all.

1. Possible global food crisis
2. Types of vegetarian meals
3. Health benefits
4. Factory farming
5. How to start a vegan diet
6. Various explanations
7. Respect to life
8. Our global responsibility

6._ Opting for a diet rich in plant-based foods offers numerous advantages for overall well-being. Research suggests that a variety of fruits, vegetables, whole grains, and legumes can lower the risk of chronic diseases such as heart disease and diabetes. These foods are often high in essential nutrients and low in unhealthy fats. Embracing a more plant-centered way of eating not only supports personal health but also aligns with global sustainability efforts, enhancing vitality and energy levels for everyone.

1. Possible global food crisis
2. Our global responsibility
3. Types of vegetarian meals
4. Health benefits
5. Respect to life
6. Factory farming
7. How to start a vegan diet
8. Various explanations

7._ Recognizing the intrinsic value of all living beings is essential for fostering a compassionate world. This perspective encourages reflection on our interactions with nature and other creatures, promoting empathy and kindness. By cultivating a mindset of respect, we can appreciate the interconnectedness of life and acknowledge the importance of coexisting harmoniously with all beings. Such an approach inspires actions that contribute to a more peaceful and sustainable planet, ultimately benefiting both individuals and society as a whole.

Question 23 (File nghe 698)

Description: In this part, I'm going to ask you to describe a picture. Then I will ask you two questions about it. You will have 45 seconds for each response. Begin speaking when you hear this sound.

Describe this picture

File nghe: 3768

Suggest: In this picture, I can see 4 people in the bus. In the background, I can not see anything because it so blurry. In the front, there are 3 people wearing casual clothes. It is clear that they are smiling and waving. I guess they are greeting their friends or their relatives. To be honest, this picture is so beautiful that it might have been taken by a professional.

Tell me about a time when you use a public transport

File nghe: 3769

Suggest: The last time I used public transport was last month. I went to friend's house in Phố Yên, Thái Nguyên. It is easier to go by bus because it is near my school. It was an opportunity to see the city when I sat in the bus. Moreover, the cost of the bus is cheaper than others. I really like to go by bus.

Do you think we should use public transport more? Why and why not?

File nghe: 3771

Suggest: Yes, It's the fact that public transport plays an important role in our life. There are various reasons why we should use public transport more. First, it is cheap and convenient. People can pay about 1 dollar for the ticket each time they go. Second, it can protect the environment from special air pollution.

Question 23 (File nghe 699)

Description: In this part, I'm going to ask you to compare two pictures, and I will then ask you two questions about them. You will have 45 seconds for each response. Begin speaking when you hear this sound.

Tell me what you see in the two pictures

File nghe: 3772

Suggest: Both pictures show me about activities of children (điểm chung). In the first picture, I can see a teacher and two students. In the second picture, I can see a boy with a yellow rope. Regarding (về) the difference, while the first picture is about two children watching pictures and I guess that they are in the museum, the second picture is about a boy climbing. I guess that all of them are on their vacation. Personally, I prefer the second picture because I like climbing.

What are the benefits of these 2 activities?

File nghe: 3773

Suggest: Both activities have benefits for children. In the 1st picture, going to the museum (enable sb to do sth = help sb do sth) enables children to foster their knowledge about the world. Question 23 (File nghe 700)

Description: In this part, I'm going to show you a picture and ask you three questions. You will have one minute to think about your answers before you start speaking. You will have two minutes to answer all three questions. Begin speaking when you hear this sound. Look at the photograph.

Tell me about a time when you couldn't buy the thing that you want? How did you feel at that time? Material possession alone cannot make people happy. Do you agree/ disagree?

File nghe: 3775

Suggest: Now, I am going to answer the 3 questions, which are: Tell me about a time when you cannot buy the thing that you want? How did you feel at that time? Material possession alone cannot make people happy. Do you agree/ disagree? Regarding the first question, let me tell you about a time that I couldn't do what I wanted and it was when I wanted to make a trip to Danang City. Well, Da Nang is famous for its beaches, and for example one of them is My Khe, which is one of the most wonderful beaches in the world, so every year, there are many tourists going to the area to see the beauty of the beach. Therefore, going to this city was extremely expensive for me at that time. Khi nào : It was when I was a second- year student at university. At that time, I really wished for a trip to Danang city. However, because I was so poor, I didn't have enough money to pay for the ticket. Turning to the second question, if my memory serves my right, at that time I was so disappointed. I realized I should have been smarter with my money. As for the final question, I agree that material possession alone cannot make people happy for many reasons. I believe that true happiness doesn't just come from buying things. It's about meaningful connections and personal growth. That's my answer. Thank you for listening.
