Question 18

Description: Read the passage quickly. Choose a heading for each numbered paragraph (1-7) from the drop-down box. The history of zoos

1._ Long time ago, zoos were reserved exclusively for monarchs and aristocrats, showcasing a grand collection of rare and exotic animals as symbols of their richness and social status. These animals served not only as a display of wealth but also as diplomatic tools, where animals were exchanged as prestigious gifts among the wealthy elite. Kings and emperors delighted in possessing the most diverse and extraordinary creatures from faraway lands, reflecting their dominion over nature and their realm.

1. Opening the doors to everyone
2. Away from enclosure towards greater freedom
3. A different set of values
4. A modern-life alternative
5. Symbols of privilege and wealth
6. A new mission of conversation
7. Away from amusement towards instruction

2._ It wasn't until the reign of England's King John, in the early 13th century, that the concept of the zoo shifted dramatically. King John, a progressive ruler, opened the royal animal exhibit at the Tower of London to the public. This groundbreaking decision marked a turning point, as zoos gradually transitioned from being exclusive enclaves of royalty to inclusive spaces accessible to people from all walks of life. Zoos transformed into places where the general public could enjoy leisure and explore the wonders of the animal kingdom.

1. Opening the doors to everyone
2. Away from enclosure towards greater freedom
3. A different set of values
4. A modern-life alternative
5. Symbols of privilege and wealth
6. A new mission of conversation
7. Away from amusement towards instruction

3. _ As societal beliefs progressed, zoos took on a more educational role. Conservation efforts gained strength, and zoos began to focus on raising awareness about endangered species and the importance of preserving biodiversity. The purpose of zoos extended beyond entertainment to provide valuable learning experiences. Modern zoos now prioritize animal welfare, creating environments that mimic natural habitats to ensure the well-being of their residents. Educational programs are designed to inform visitors about wildlife conservation, fostering a deeper appreciation for the natural world.

1. Opening the doors to everyone
2. Away from enclosure towards greater freedom
3. A different set of values
4. A modern-life alternative
5. Symbols of privilege and wealth
6. A new mission of conversation
7. Away from amusement towards instruction

4. _ In the 19th century, there was a significant change in how zoos treated animals, thanks to the pioneering work of Carl Hagenbeck, a renowned German animal dealer and zoo founder. Hagenbeck completely transformed the way zoos were designed. Instead of confining animals in small cages and enclosures, he introduced the concept of open enclosures. In these more naturalistic environments, animals had greater freedom to move around and express their natural behaviors. The shift from confinement to freedom not only improved the animals' quality of life but also allowed visitors to observe animals in a more authentic setting.

1. Opening the doors to everyone
2. Away from enclosure towards greater freedom
3. A different set of values
4. A modern-life alternative
5. Symbols of privilege and wealth

6. A new mission of conversation
7. Away from amusement towards instruction

5. _ As culture and ethics evolve, zoos are reevaluating their beliefs. Instead of solely showcasing rare and exotic animals, modern zoos are now stressing the significance of protecting biodiversity and the environment. Their goal is to encourage visitors to appreciate and care for all forms of life on Earth. Zoos are now working towards practices that prioritize animal welfare and conservation, encouraging a stronger sense of responsibility towards our planet.

1. Opening the doors to everyone
2. Away from enclosure towards greater freedom
3. A different set of values
4. A modern-life alternative
5. Symbols of privilege and wealth
6. A new mission of conversation
7. Away from amusement towards instruction

6. _ As climate change and habitat destruction pose significant threats to wildlife, zoos have embraced a new mission - protecting animals on the brink of extinction. They play a crucial role in species recovery and act as sanctuaries for critically endangered creatures. Through dedicated conservation programs, zoos work tirelessly to ensure the survival and well-being of these vulnerable species. By taking a lead in conservation efforts, zoos aim to inspire visitors and the wider community to recognize the urgency of protecting our fragile ecosystems and the species that inhabit them.

1. Opening the doors to everyone
2. Away from enclosure towards greater freedom
3. A different set of values
4. A modern-life alternative
5. Symbols of privilege and wealth
6. A new mission of conversation
7. Away from amusement towards instruction

7. _ While zoos have evolved to prioritize conservation and education, the question arises: Do modern humans still need zoos to learn about animals? Zoos aim to strike a delicate balance, simultaneously educating people, protecting animals, and ensuring their well-being. To achieve this, some zoos are exploring innovative approaches, such as virtual reality experiences and augmented reality exhibits, to offer visitors an immersive and educational experience without physical enclosure. By embracing these modern-life alternatives, zoos can effectively fulfill their educational objectives while also emphasizing the importance of animal welfare and freedom in their mission to protect and preserve wildlife.

1. Opening the doors to everyone
2. Away from enclosure towards greater freedom
3. A different set of values
4. A modern-life alternative
5. Symbols of privilege and wealth

Question 20

Description: Four people review the quality of a restaurant. Read their comments and answer the questions below. Person A The Menu I read has a lot of good reviews online and decided to try it out. The prices are reasonable, and the food is good and varied. My favorite part is the starters – there are so many things that I don't know what to choose from. My only criticism is the noise level. The live show was excellent, but the volume was a bit low; they should turn it up next time. Despite that, I enjoyed the food and the show overall. Person B I'm not sure if I'll return to it. The staff seemed like they just had an argument, making the atmosphere unpleasant. Maybe they had a rough day. I ordered fish and chips. It is not bad but not good either. People said this restaurant was excellent, but my experience might be an exception. Person C I was looking forward to visiting this restaurant, but my first visit left me certain that I won't come back. The staff wasn't friendly at all, and while the meal was huge, it made me question whether that was a good sign. The traditional style of the food didn't match the modern décor, creating an odd experience that I don't want to repeat. Additionally, the food was too expensive. Person D The newspaper I saw has lots of appetizing food. Unfortunately, on the day I arrived, I came late, so I couldn't order dinner. However, the drinks here were great. I tried a mango drink and it was delicious. The background music was just right, and the decor matched the atmosphere perfectly. Overall, it was great, I'll definitely come back on time next time to try their food.

Describe this picture.File nghe: 3989

Suggest: In the picture, I can see 3 people, 2 old men and an old lady in the coffee shop. In the background, I cannot see anything because it is so blurry. In the front, there are 3 people wearing casual clothes. It is clear that they are sitting, drinking coffee and talking with each other. I guess they are having a good time because I can see the smile on their face. To be honest, this picture is so beautiful that it might have been taken by a professional.

When and where do you meet your friends?File nghe: 3992

Suggest: Let me tell you about When and where I meet my friends. I often meet my friends when I have free time, for example in the evening. Besides, we usually go to coffee shops because it is cheap and convenient. It allows me to relax and reduce stress after a long day at work.

Why do some people have many friends?

File nghe: 3994

Suggest: Some people have many friends for several reasons. First, They are often kind, helpful, and fun, so people like being around them. Second, some people have many friends because they are friendly and easy to talk to. They like meeting new people and enjoy spending time with others.

Question 23 (File nghe 762)

Description: In this part, I'm going to show you a picture and ask you three questions. You will have one minute to think about your answers before you start speaking. You will have two minutes to answer all three questions. Begin speaking when you hear this sound. Look at the photograph.

Tell me about a time you spent surrounded by nature. How do you feel at that time? How can people be encouraged to protect and preserve nature?

File nghe: 3998

Suggest: Now, I am going to answer the 3 questions, which are: Tell me about a time you were surrounded by nature? How do you at that time? How can people be encouraged to protect and preserve nature? Regarding the first question, let me tell you about a time that I was surrounded by nature and it was when I made a trip to Danang City. Well, Da Nang is famous for its beaches, and for example one of them is My Khe, which is one of the most wonderful beaches in the world, so every year, there are many tourists going to the area to see the beauty of the beach. Therefore, going to this city was extremely expensive for me at that time. It was when I was a second- year student at university. To relax and reduce stress after a long day at work, I decided to make a trip to Danang city with my friends. So in Danang I did a number of things, first of all, I did some sightseeing in the mountains and I had a beautiful view of the city below. It was when I was surrounded by nature Turning to the second question, I usually feel excited when I am surrounded by nature because I can gain more experience. [For example, I was very delighted on the trip to Danang because I could broaden my knowledge about nature. As for the final question, I think we should educate people about the benefits of protecting and preserving nature. When they understand these benefits, they are encouraged to take action.

Question 23 (File nghe 761)

Description: In this part, I'm going to ask you to compare two pictures, and I will then ask you two questions about them. You will have 45 seconds for each response. Begin speaking when you hear this sound.

Describe 2 pictures.

File nghe: 3995

Suggest: Both pictures show me different ways of eating. In the first picture, a young man is sitting at a table, happily eating a colorful salad. He looks very content and enjoys his meal in a cozy kitchen. The room has a lot of plants and a warm atmosphere. In the second picture, another man is in a bright kitchen, preparing food. There are many fresh fruits and vegetables on the counter, showing that he enjoys cooking healthy meals. I prefer the second picture because I love cooking.

What are the appeals of these 2 ways of eating?

File nghe: 3996

Suggest: Each way of eating has its own appeals. The first way of eating, like in the first picture, is appealing because it shows that eating healthy food can be enjoyable. Eating a salad is good for your health. It also looks very colorful and fresh. The second way of eating, shown in the second picture, is interesting because it shows cooking at home. Cooking allows you to control what goes into your food, making it healthier.

Is it important to choose what to eat?

File nghe: 3997

Suggest: Yes, it is very important to choose what to eat because of some reasons. First, Healthy eating helps us feel better and have more energy. Second, Choosing the right foods can improve our mood and support our bodies. It is also important to enjoy our meals, so we can have a happy relationship with food. Suggest: I think more people are interested in keeping fit because they want to live healthier lives. Plus, social media also influences them to try new workouts and share their fitness journeys, making it more popular.

Description: You are a member of the Power Fitness club. You received this email from the club's manager. Dear Member, Unfortunately in order to cut costs we are forced to reduce the facilities that we can offer our members. Some members have suggested that we close the club shop, where we sell sports equipment. Another suggestion is to close the cafe selling sandwiches and soft drinks. We would be interested to hear what you think. Please write to the manager with your suggestion and your reason for suggesting it. Bests, Club Manager.

Write an email to your friend. Tell your friend what the club should do and why. Write about 50 words.

Suggest: Hi Sarah, How is it going? I hope you and your family are fine. Have you received the email from our club regarding cutting costs by either closing the club shop or the cafe. I was very shocked to hear that. I think the club should keep the cafe open. It's a nice place to relax and socialize after workouts. The cafe makes the club feel more welcoming, and I believe many members enjoy it. What do you think about this? Hope to hear from you soon Yours, Anna

Write an email to the manager of the club. Say what you think the club should do and why. Write about 120-150 words.

Suggest: Dear Club Manager, My name is Anna. I have been a member of our club for 3 months. I am writing in response to your latest email. I am writing in response to your latest email. According to the news, in order to cut costs, our club is going to close the club shop, where we sell sports equipment, or close the cafe which sells sandwiches and soft drinks. I feel sad about the decision to cut facilities at our club. I would like to venture my ideas. I believe it would be better to close the club shop rather than the cafe. The cafe provides a space for members to relax, socialize, and refresh after their workouts. This atmosphere encourages community among members and keeps them coming back. I think many members would prefer a place to sit and chat. Retaining the cafe can enhance the overall experience at the club, making it more appealing to everyone. . I hope my suggestions will be useful and I am looking forward to hearing from you soon. Best regards, Anna.
